

III. E-file for Individuals

Taxpayers can electronically file their return through a tax preparer providing this service, by using a TAX approved tax preparation software package on their personal computer, or by going to a tax software provider's web site. Some, but not all, local tax authorities also offer e-file. Taxpayers should contact their local Commissioner of the Revenue, Director of Tax Administration, or Director of Finance for details.